

2012 Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am supporting the Gordie & Colleen Howe Fund for Alzheimer's Frequently Asked Questions

About the Scotiabank Pro-Am for Alzheimer's

Q: What is the Scotiabank Pro-Am for Alzheimer's?

A: The Scotiabank Pro-Am for Alzheimer's, in support of the Gordie & Colleen Howe Fund, is the ultimate hockey experience. This one-of-a-kind event allows the average weekend warriors to strap on their skates and team up with some of the greatest hockey players to ever hit the ice. The Scotiabank Pro-Am is the largest event of its kind in Canada and provides memories that will last a lifetime.

Q: When and where will the 2012 Scotiabank Pro-Am be held?

A: The 2012 Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am will take place from October 26–28, 2012. Draft Night will be held on October 26, 2012 and the tournament will be played on October 27 to October 28. The tournament games will take place at Canlan Ice Sports North Shore, located at 2411 Mount Seymour Parkway, North Vancouver, BC V7H 2Y9. Tel. 604-924-0828.

Q: What happens at the tournament?

A: The excitement really heats up when our participants and NHL alumni take to the ice on Saturday and Sunday. Each team is guaranteed to play three times over two days and all games will consist of three 15-minute periods. The top 20 individual fundraisers will face-off against an all alumni squad for a spectacular All-Star game. The top two fundraising teams will also play the all alumni team in the Championship game.

Q: How can I participate?

A: You can participate in a variety of ways:

1. Register a team and become the team captain.
2. Register and join a team as a player, by invitation of the captain.
3. Sponsor a player or a team with a donation.
4. Sign on as a corporate sponsor.

Registration

Q: How do I register for the 2012 Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am?

A: Registration is easy. Simply log onto www.scotiabankproam.com/vancouver. Click on the tab found at the top of the page marked "Register now for 2012" and follow the easy instructions to register. To register as a player, please note that you must be invited by a team captain. Please keep your username and password to log back into your personal 2012 Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am web page.

Q: How much is the registration fee?

A: The registration fee is $250 for this event. In the event of a player cancellation, the registration fee will become a donation to the Gordie & Colleen Howe Fund for Alzheimer's, and a tax receipt will then be issued for that amount. Please note: this policy is only applicable to those who cancel more than 30 days prior to the event.

Fundraising

Q: How do I solicit donations online?

A: Once you have registered and logged into your personal 2012 Scotiabank Pro-Am webpage, please select the "Solicit Sponsors" tab on the left side of the screen and follow the easy online guide.

Q: What do I do with my offline credit card, cheque or cash donation?

A: Although we accept offline donations, please encourage your donors to sponsor you online. In the event that you do receive cash or cheques, simply log on to your personal web page and click on the "Download offline sponsor form". Please fill out the form and mail the offline donations to "The Gordie and Colleen Howe Fund" 300 – 828 West 8th Ave., Vancouver, BC V5Z 1E2. Please ensure that all cheques are made out to "The Gordie & Colleen Howe Fund", and that your name, as well as the sponsored participant (if different) is noted on the cheque and on the form. Please do not place cash in the mail.

Team and Player Benefits

Q: How can I find out about the team and player benefits?

A: To find the latest 2012 team and player benefits please visit the Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am website at www.scotiabankproam.com/vancouver/rewards.

Q: Who can win rewards / prizes?

A: Teams and individual players can earn incredible rewards and prizes throughout the year. The Scotiabank Pro-Am team will be sending out e-mail reminders and updates to players, outlining these incentives via regular e-mails in the lead-up to the event.

Q: Does my personal fundraising count towards my team total as well?

A: Yes! Your personal fundraising dollars will count towards your team's overall total as well. The more you raise, the more prizes both you and your teammates are eligible for, and the better chance your team has at a higher draft pick.

Q: What kinds of prizes can players and teams win?

A: The Vancouver Scotiabank Pro-Am is offering incredible prizing for 2012. The prizes vary from experiential prizes to special team and individual prizing, great memorabilia and hockey tickets.

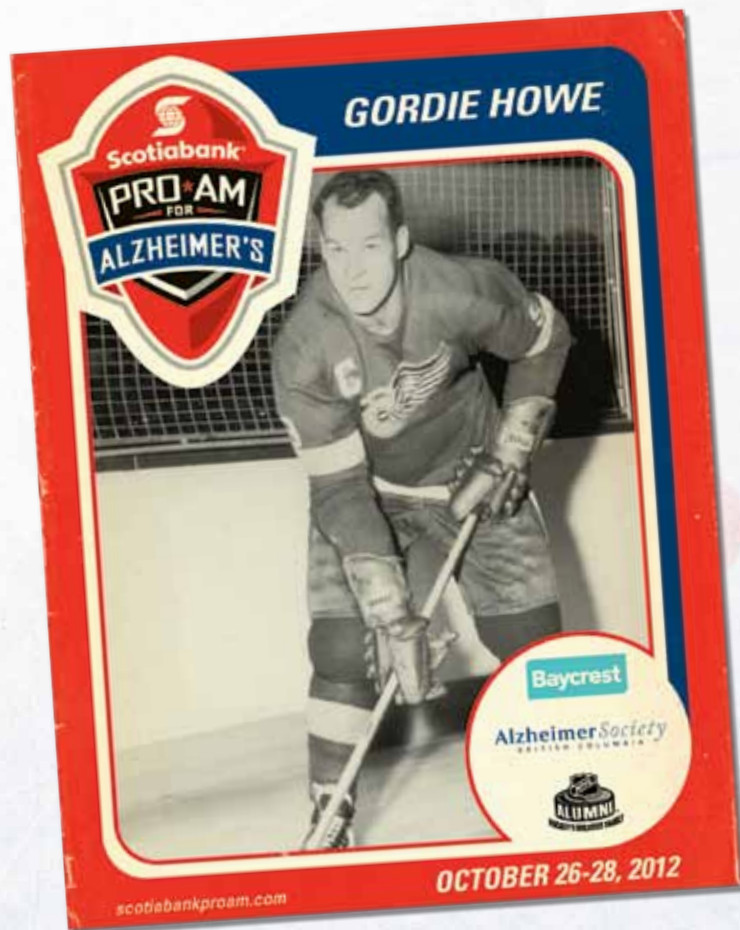

Corporate Sponsors and the Gordie Howe & Friends Luncheon

Q: What can the 2012 Scotiabank Pro-Am offer corporate sponsors?

A: A number of corporate sponsorship opportunities are available for 2012. Please click on the following link to view the "corporate sponsorship opportunities" www.scotiabankproam.com/vancouver/sponsorship.shtml. Should you have any questions regarding any of the packages, please feel free to contact Alison Johnson at 416-785-2500 x 2568 or ajohnson@baycrest.org.

Q: What is the Gordie Howe & Friends Luncheon?

A: The Gordie Howe & Friends Luncheon, held the day before the tournament, is the best way to say thank you to corporate sponsors in an intimate setting with Gordie and his friends. All sponsors that purchase a Championship ($25,000) or Hall of Fame ($10,000) package will receive a table at this amazing event. They will have the opportunity to mix and mingle with a number of NHL alumni while taking in a live Hot Stove Lounge segment as well as some vintage footage of Mr Hockey™ himself. For companies that would like to be involved in this event but are not interested in fielding a team, the Gordie Howe & Friends Luncheon is the perfect introduction. It provides them with a unique hosting opportunity while supporting a very worthwhile cause.

Draft Night

Q: What is Draft Night?

A: Draft Night is the kickoff event to the entire Scotiabank Pro-Am weekend. This is a private function for participants, NHL alumni, and VIP guests only. This is your opportunity to rub shoulders with some of the NHL's all-time greats. At the event, teams draft alumni (based on fundraising total) and the celebrations begin! Draft night will take place in Vancouver on Friday October 26, 2012 (location TBA).

Additional Information

Q: How can I attend the Scotiabank Pro-Am tournaments if I am not a player or a corporate sponsor?
